DRIVE BRINGS IN OLD FINES

Prosecutor Reports Results in Move To Collect Unpaid Penalties

WARRANTS SWORN OUT

Five of Eight Complete Payments When Faced With Return to Jail

That recent steps taken by Prosecuting Attorney Paul D Michel to collect old fines owed the county by prisoners paroled from the county jail are bearing fruit was shown today in a report by the prosecutor that five of eight men paid in full when Sheriff Fred F Millers deputies and police sought to arrest them on warrants The other three could not be located

Michel said numerous other persons have made arrangements to make their payments regularly until the fines are paid out Any lapse on their part he said will land them in jail to lay out the balance due

The prosecutor has been making a thorough study of the cases of all persons paroled from the jail by county commissioners The paroles were issued so the prisoners might earn money to pay their fines Warrants have been issued for the re arrest of those who have failed to live up to the terms of their paroles which in most cases provided that they make small monthly payments until the fines are paid out.

All Auto Driver Cases

All eight persons contacted recently on arrest warrants were paroled on drunken driving charges In each case the fine imposed was $100 and costs of the prosecution These are the first steps taken in what Michel said is a move on his part to clear the county records of all old fines due from paroled prisoners

Michel declared he will not approve parole applications in the future of persons who have been committed to the jail for failure to pay fines for drunken driving offenses This refusal will block future paroles from the jail by county commissioners on that type of case since the signature of the

Council Moves To Pay Old Operating Deficit

Outline Plan To Refund 1936 Bonds, Using Money To Pay Back Bills; Dr. Smith Directed To Take Objections to Waterworks Committee.

The first step in a program termed by city officials as a move to extricate the city from an operating deficit accumulated over a period of years was taken last night when council members outlined a plan to refund approximately $75 000 in bonded debt which will fall due in 1936.

W M Fabian chairman of the council finance committee described the refunding measure as a wedge that council hopes will open the way for a method of paying off the deficits of recent years He said the finance committee now is classifying the deficits which amounted roughly to $126 000 last Jan 1 grouping them according to city departments in which they were incurred and determining the amount of deficit for each of the several years in which the floating debt was incurred

Council also refused Dr Frederick C Smith permission to present more questions regarding the city's procedure in the proposed purchase of the Marion Water Co plant instructing him to take his questions to its waterworks committee delayed final action on application of the Spur Oil Co of Nashville Tenn for permission to lay a gasoline pipe line under Park boulevard and transferred a residential property at 364 East Church street to the commercial zone of the city for use as a funeral home

Follows Suggestion

Regarding the action taken toward payment of old bills for operating various city departments council took one of two steps recently recommended to the city by the Marion Water Co seeking payment of overdue hydrant rentals The water company has suggested the city (1) issue bonds against outstanding delinquent taxes on real estate to be retired as the overdue taxes are collected and from the proceeds of this issue pay off the deficits and (2) refinance by a refund issue the city bonds falling due next year The second step was recommended by the company to relieve the city of a probable loss in taxation revenue that would result in 1936 from the use of delinquent tax payments to retire the bonds mentioned in its first proposal It has been the practice of the city to use delinquent tax money collected each year to help pay city operating expenses

Mr Fabian said the finance committee is not yet certain whether it will follow the company's suggestion to issue bonds against delinquent taxes and use the proceeds to pay off the deficit.

The committee he said will make a study of the different possible ways the old bills could be paid and recommend a course of action to council This study he added will not be made until the committe learns definitely how much the city owes on overdue accounts and classifies them by departments and by the years in which they were incurred

Any possible plan of payment it

HAUPTMANN'S EXECUTION PUT OFF BY COURT

Granted Right To Appeal His Case Before Supreme Tribunal of United States

MUST ACT WITHIN 30 DAYS

Defense Attorney Agrees To Terms and Says He Will Act with Dispatch

By The Associated Press

TRENTON N J Oct 15—Bruno Richard Hauptmann's execution was stayed indefinitely today when the court of errors and appeals granted him an opportunity to appeal his conviction in the Lindbergh kidnap-murder case to the supreme court of the United States

The court gave Egbert Rosecrans one of the defense attorneys 30 days in which to ask the supreme court to review allegations that Hauptmann's constitutional rights were violated in the trial

Stayed by Court

The order which would have returned the case to Supreme Court Justice Thomas W Trenchard trial judge for re-fixing of the execution date was stayed by the court of errors and appeals but will automatically take effect on Nov 15 if the appeal is not perfected by that time

Six days ago the court of errors and appeals in a unanimous opinion upheld Hauptmann's conviction The state applied last Friday for the order which was stayed today

Rosecrans asked the court to prevent return of the record until the supreme court disposes of the case or until the further order of the court His motion was opposed by Assistant Attorney General Joseph Lanigan who asked that the order fix a definite time in which the appeal must be taken

To Act with Dispatch

Rosecrans agreed to the 30-day period and said he would act with dispatch

Should the supreme court refuse to entertain Hauptmann's appeal the new electrocution date would be fixed for some time late in December or January

Duce's Fliers Bomb Ethiops As Dictator Voices Belief War Will Spread to Europe

Mussolini Tells Kansan He Has Lost Hope of Avoiding Armed Conflict in Europe.

LAUDS U. S. STAND

Not Worried Over Sanctions Unless Military Action Starts and Says He'll Stick to League.

Copyright, 1935, Associated Press

ROME Oct 15—Fresh from an interview with Premier Mussolini former Sen Henry Allen of Kansas said today Il Duce appears to have lost hope of avoiding a European conflict

The former United States senator publisher and observer of international affairs after talking with Mussolini for half an hour late yesterday said

Apparently he believes frankly that England means war

Il Duce told Allen in their interview the former senator's second with Mussolini in eight years—that he appreciated American neutrality in the Italo-Ethiopian conflict.

Il Duce In Good Spirits

Mussolini was described by Allen as in fine feather welcoming his army's political success among Ethiopian tribesmen

Government spokesmen said Italy counted 20 000 Ethiopians on its side as the Fascist forces went about clinching their control over the northern area of the empire of Haile Selassie

These warriors who have surrendered to Gen Emilio De Bono commander in chief of Italy's east African armies the spokesman said would be given a chance to vote for Italian domination of Tigre province and against the reign of the Ethiopian emperor

The reports of African chieftains and priests throwing their influence to the Italian cause contrasted sharply with Italy's fortunes at Geneva where a decision to apply financial sanctions brought closer a showdown between Italy and the League of Nations

To Cling to League

Mussolini's spokesman insisted he would not worry about sanctions other than military measures and that he would remain within the league as long as possible

Former Sen Allen attributed to Il Duce himself the assertion that Italy would not leave the league unless military sanctions were imposed

In spite of heavy international threat under which he is proceeding Il Duce impressed me as being probably the calmest ruler in the world today said Allen

Apparently he regards the die as cast and has no domestic problem as far as consolidation of his support among the Italian people is concerned

He gave me to feel that he does not hope for avoidance of a European war He continues to assert he will not leave the League of Nations unless military sanctions are employed

Press Shows Slight Concern

The Italian press accepted news of the league's decision on financial sanctions with little concern expressing belief Italy could carry on its Ethiopian campaign unaided

The full force of Fascist control over public opinion and action was mustered nevertheless to resist economic and financial pressure

A slackening of the country's gold coverage taxes on company returns obligatory rental deposits in government bonds a ten billion lire war loan and increased paper currency were measures with which the government made ready for emergencies

Ships followed one another in quick succession out of Italian ports bound for east Africa with men and munitions

Upward of 16 000 men were

League To Ban War Products from Italy

BY WADE WERNER
Associated Press Foreign Staff

GENEVA Oct 15—The League of Nations subcommittee for economic sanctions decided in principle today to recommend an embargo against the shipment into Italy of key products—materials used in the manufacture of war munitions

The committee then proceeded to draw up a specific list of products which Premier Mussolini must have if he is to continue the manufacture of armaments and supplies for his forces in east Africa

The tentative list included: aluminum zinc copper nickel tin, coal wool manganese and gasoline

Experts armed with voluminous masses of statistics laid bare the arteries of world trade with Italy and examined into the possibilities of applying tourniquets to stop the flow of that trade

Meanwhile a subcommittee of military experts examined President Roosevelt's list of implements of war and decided to change a few details in definitions of specific arms mentioned in the list upon which the United States has placed an embargo against both Italy and Ethiopia

ADDIS ABABA Oct 15 Italian airplanes roared in bombing and reconnaissance patrols over northern and eastern Ethiopia today and Emperor Haile Selassie answered the threat with additional concentrations of thousands of infantrymen

The Ethiopian government announced that two Italian planes bombed Alaji near Makale and that others had bombed troops concentrating at Makale 60 miles south of Aduwa There were no casualties said the communique

It was also officially announced that reconnaissance planes has flown over the Gota station of the railroad to Djibouti between Diredawa and Awash

Planes Fly Over Harar

Other Italian planes swooped low over Harar and practically the entire populace there anticipating bombing evacuated to the hills or fled to Diredawa

Meanwhile the Italian army formally occupied Ethiopia's holy city of Aksum

Gen Emilio De Bono's army entered the city at 7 15 a m today an official communique announced The news was heralded as a victory for the Italian cause not even second to that at Aduwa

The emperor rushed enormous numbers of warriors to strategic areas to meet the threatened Italian onslaught in the north and south

From official sources came the information that more than 150,000 fresh tribesmen including the fiercest fighters of the empire will pass through Addis Ababa this week for review by the emperor

These warriors are children of the Aduwa heroes and are known as ferocious fighters Many of them are so unlettered that they never heard of America the League of Nations airplanes wireless, tanks, or telephones

Surprised To See Whites

Upon arriving today some of Mulugueta's tribesmen expressed astonishment at seeing white men

We are at war What are you doing here? They exclaimed, apparently classing all whites with Italians.

Their chiefs remembering the emperor's admonition to treat all foreigners kindly, reproved these sons of the deserts and mountains when they attempted to molest foreigners or jammed the butts of their rifles against the latters' automobiles

Even the tribesmen's horses and mules unaccustomed to white

Marriage Mart Here Fails To Produce Bride

Would-be Bridegroom Complains to Authorities After Paying $107.

A marriage mart" that started to bloom in Marion several months ago faded last night when the operator of it was taken into custody after his one customer complained to authorities that he had paid $107 for a bride-to-be who was never produced by the salesman '

The would be bridegroom related the following tale of how he paid $107 to hear wedding bells that never rang

He and the bride salesman were working together on a government works project in Marion and several times during their working hours he said he mentioned to the salesman that he would like to enter the bonds of matrimony The salesman told him of a "nice looking" cousin who resided south of Columbus and who also would like to marry He told the prospective groom that he could bring his cousin to Marion but that he would have to have a little money to get her here

Puts Up $1 75

The man said he gave the matchmaker all the money he had, $1 75, and that he left Marion a few days later to bring his cousin here The 'salesman' and the altar-bound cousin returned as far as Columbus where they ran out of funds, and the waiting suitor received a wire requesting $5 more to enable his future wife and her escort to complete the trip He sent the five, but when the cousins arrived here the salesman told the suitor he would have to wait a period of one week before he could meet the object of his affection

Columbus Women Musicians Present Program Before Club

MEMBERS and patrons of the Marion Lecture Recital club who braved the downpour of rain last night to hear the string ensemble of the Women s music club of Columbus present the club s opening program of the 1935-36 season, were rewarded with an evening of outstanding musicianship and entertainment Appearing with the ensemble was Mrs Helen Pugh Alcorn of Columbus piano soloist

Under the baton of Mabel Dunn Hopkins the ensemble of 26 musicians did full justice to a program ranging from the delicate beauties of Aria by Tenaglia and the haunting Wagner number An Album Leaf to the rollicking Square Dance by Harold P Davidson

Mrs Edna Schumacher presided at the piano for the accompaniments

The audience which practically filled the ballroom at Hotel Harding not only enjoyed the program but voiced its approval in generous applause after each number

The ensemble opened the program with Eine Kleine Nacht musik by Mozart playing the allegro romance and rondo with a sureness and certainty of style and finish which won the instant approval of the audience This was followed by the lovely Tenaglia number and by the way of contrast a whimsical selection Mock Morries by Percy Grainger A Haydn suite Presto Arietto in B Flat and Minuet in D closed the first part of the program

Mrs Norma Hopkins Putnam played the incidental violin solo in the Wagner number which was followed by a chanting melody Letzter Fruehling by Grieg and the number from Davidson s Three Americanisms

The full realization of the ensemble s musicianship was reached in the Schumann Piano Concerto with Mrs Alcorn at the piano An accomplished musician in her own right Mrs Alcorn played the concerto with power and depth of expression bringing the altogether too brief program to a brilliant close

Mrs Glen Penry who will preside as president of the club this year announced a meeting of the club study group Monday night at the home of Mrs George M Kleinmaier on South State street and the first meeting of the Junior Lecture Recital club Oct 28

The program for the senior club this season was arranged by Mrs Emma Uhler Voorhees and Mrs Karl W Schell co-chairmen

In a moment she would awaken. This was another of those terrible dreams which had haunted her since the night of the tragedy. There was a clock ticking slowly in the room Like the clocks at school Lucinda Luke but why hadn't they told her?

A moment of rebellion swept over her Why had they taken her to their hearts poured their love and care over her with such lavishness then withdrawn everything at a time like this?

Judge Kellogg motioned to the pasteboard cup of water he had drawn from the cooler and placed before her She looked at it stupidly He picked it up and thrust it into her hands Better drink he insisted

If she could only deny it in her heart but she couldn't Childhood Visitors meeting her for the first time

Doesn't resemble either one of you they'd say

And she would rush to a mirror to study her reflection searching for one similar feature She'd tried to resemble one or the other so hard

She remembered how unable to copy Lucinda's small boned gracefulness she had taken to standing feet apart hands clasped behind her back chin out like Luke and how they'd laughed and Lucinda had cried a little at the ludicrous little figure she'd made

Sorry I had to tell you like this Anne but I've learned in my years on the bench that it's kinder to break things quickly Sit down girl think it over I'll be back in a moment."

Anne sank into the chair For a few moments she sat staring out of the window looking down the narrow canyon of buildings to where the Willamette a gray ribbon of water wound along at the far end The river was grey the roofs of the buildings were grey the rain clouds which hung low in the sky were grey And the girl who looked out of the window felt as though she were steeped in a greyish mist of confused heartache.

• • •

"If I could cry, I'd feel better not so smothery" she whispered I suppose I'm stunned now like I was that that awful night Soon I'll realize

Things like that don't happen in life Anne said

The thought was terrifying She couldn't be a nobody She jumped to her feet and sped to the next room where Judge Kellogg was staring out of the window

Judge— she tried to control the hysterical note in her voice Judge who am I?

Ansel Kellogg turned and he who had sat at the bar of justice sentencing men and women to life imprisonment or the noose found it almost impossible to speak He looked at the modishly clad girl at the white face dominated by the wide-set dark eyes and darker brows at the brave uplift of the chin

We'll find out somehow he promised

That means you don't know she declared Please won't you tell me everything? It's going to be easier to know the truth than face any more uncertainty like this

"Let's go back and sit down" he suggested and arm about her shoulder, he directed her to the inner room

"Judge, wouldn't adoption papers tell about my parents?"

"They would Anne, if there were any papers. It was due to their absence that I learned as much as I did. The Westport attorney Clive Burton's his name, telephoned me last night He knew I had acted for Farnsworth at times and thought I might be able to locate the papers or some record of their having been drawn up.

Burton said that Farley insisted there had been no papers drawn. He said your mother had come into the hospital as an emergency case unconscious alone She died the night, Farley was just beginning his law practice at Crescent City, where all of this took place. Luke sent for him, their first meeting by the way but as your mother didn't regain consciousness there was nothing he could do" He paused at the quick gasp which came from Anne.

"That's it that's what Tom Farley has known about me Judge Kellogg that man hates me"

I don't think he's over-running with love for anyone excepting Tom Farley Kellogg replied

Anne's eyes were wide calm now She nodded I understand If he can prove I'm not adopted then I won't be able to ask for my share of the estate.

Kellogg nodded That seems to be the idea If he would only be content to stop there

What do you mean?

He's planned further persecution Anne That's why I said I must see you before anyone else

The judge plans Anne's campaign tomorrow

Married Comrades

BY ADELE GARRISON

Womenfolk Consider a Punishment for Roderick.

I NEVER HAVE known Junior to break a promise to me and I rested so securely in his assurance that he would make things as easy as possible for Roderick that I turned the boys over to the care of Williams with my mind at ease

Then I went back into the spacious room which Katherine Mary and I were sharing in order to give the baby the room of her own to which she is accustomed and in which Roderick and I had dined alone and swiftly changed into a lounging robe and slippers

Katherine already had changed to negligee but Mary rapidly scribbling on the hotel note paper at a desk in the corner, was still in street clothing

I can't change yet" she said looking up briefly as I came from the clothes closet near her "I must go out and post this letter to Noel"

Williams can do that" I pointed out

She clasped in both hands the letter she was writing with a burlesqued jealous gesture

Do you think I would permit profane hands to touch this sacred screed?" she intoned laughingly but I sensed reality beneath the levity

There" Mary exclaimed ten minutes later wheeling the desk chair around so that she faced us I've finished What do you want me to add to the effusion? You said you'd be concocting something to write him remember?"

Tell him for me I said slowly that when he has heard all that your uncle has to tell him I wish he would wire or telephone us at the New Hampshire address Do you know what it is?"

Yes Aunt Katherine gave it me" she said "I already have put it in

"Then that's all there is to say" I said "You probably will find telegrams awaiting you when we get up to the camp"

I'm like Junior" Mary flashed as she rose after addressing and sealing her envelope "I can't see how I'm going to stand it until we get there"

"It's a good thing she isn't driving the lead car in the caravan Katherine commented when Mary had rushed out of the room letter in hand, to inquire the way to the nearest mailing place "What about her going alone"

She isn't I said although she won't know it I'll have Williams keep her in sight

A word to Williams, down the hall sent him after Mary while I remained with the boys until his return Mary Saw Him

She's been back in her room for five minutes he said when he returned then added ruefully But I'm afraid she saw me I've shadowed a lot of people who never suspected but she's mighty bright that girl"

Mary herself confirmed his suspicion a minute later as I joined her and Katherine in the outer suite

What was the big idea in putting Sherlock on my trail darling?" she asked sweetly He tried so hard to merge himself in the shrubbery but there were too many open spaces between here and the postoffice and too few doorways I tried to keep my recognition secret however I wouldn't hurt his feelings for the world

He knew that you recognized him," I said, "He just told me so. But there's no harm done. I didn't want you to go out alone until—"

Mary finished the sentence for me with a brittle laugh

"Until you're certain that some of Jack Leslie's pals aren't marking my trail, she said "That's okay by me I haven't the slightest desire to look at any of his comrades or minions And now what's the next thing on the program" I warn you it's going to be bye-bye for little Mary pretty soon so if you have any darning mending or other home work to do, trot it out promptly for I shan't be available long"

"There's only one thing" I said smiling with Katherine at her nonsense "and that won't take very long I must decide upon some suitable punishment for Roderick while we are in the mountains and I need all the advice I can get from both of you

I'd punish him in oil" Mary said flippantly and then string him up by the thumbs to dry But then I'm his sister and probably inclined to mercy However a kid that age starting a car against orders and taking his first joy ride nearly killing himself and others needs something drastic

I adore the little rascal but I'm for punishment with a big "P" this time

Traders Concentrate on Industrials, Communications and Specialties.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct 15—Selective buying in the industrials, communications and specialties kept bullish fires aglow in today's stock market

The list weathered heavy profit taking in the first hour with gains ranging from fractions to several points The ticker tape fell in arrears as blocks of several thousand shares changed hands at the start of dealings Many new highs for the year or longer were recorded There apparently was as much short covering as fresh short selling

After the initial rush the activity slowed perceptibly and extreme advances were shaded or cancelled A little more caution was in evidence as the utilities rails and steels were inclined to do little more than mark time

Wheat rallied moderately along with cotton and bonds exhibited a firmer tone than in the previous session Foreign exchanges improved a bit in terms of the dollar Securities in London and Paris were sluggish

Shares of Western Union spurted 3 points Air reduction got up 6 Loew's up about 2 was an active performer Chrysler forged ahead more than a point along with Auburn Electric Auto-Lite and Spiegel May Stern Fractional improvement was registered by Radio Preferred B American Telephone Case Westinghouse DuPont Johns Manville Sears Roebuck and Montgomery Ward Although Union Pacific recovered a point the other carriers were virtually unchanged American Can was heavy The metals sagged

Stories of serious short casualties especially among such stocks as Chrysler were being heard in the boardrooms There were also intimations that the SEC might take a hand if the forward momentum became too pronounced

While inflation psychology was said to be a little more noticeable in the financial sector the steady improvement in trade and industry was believed by most brokers to be the principal sustaining market influence

War news, while confusing to the majority of observers in Wall street was not particularly disturbing to speculative or investment sentiment. It was generally felt that the Ethiopian conflagration would not spread to Europe

The eight months report of American Telephone disclosing net income equivalent to $4 28 a share compared with $3 85 in the same 1934 period seemingly was in line with expectations

The Stars Say--

For Wednesday, Oct 16

THE PLANETARY influences of this day are in many instances conflicting While there are auguries of very lively eventful and surprisingly successful conditions yet there also are signs of turbulence strife jealousy and enmities both open and under hand These may be thwarted by sagacity wariness and strict control over tongue and temper Refrain from sarcasm and bitter words All pertaining to writings and publicity should flourish and employment is under excellent promise for advancement and preferment Personal correspondence may cause some anxiety or disappointment

Those whose birthday it is may be prepared for a very lively and eventful year but one calling for discretion self control and calm judgment in order to reap certain promising advantages Strife impetuosity and sarcastic or caustic speech may precipitate open hostility as well as secret enmities and jealousy Personal correspondence has a hint of dissatisfaction but otherwise all pertaining to writings should thrive Employment is under fortunate auguries for promotion and preferment Good news favorably affects business

A child born on this day may be very clever but tempestuous sarcastic and impulsive
